zebrix REST api Documentation

Introduction

Every zebrix REST API call required a token that has to be included in the request header. The token can be obtained with a login procedure.

login api : /login

Parameters has to be sent in the JSON format

Parameters
customername	the customer name
username	the username
password	the user password

example with "POSTMAN" (Google Chrome Extension)

Call

Result